...authorized officials of State or Federal agencies may have access to student records for audit or evaluation of educational programs.

ACCESS TO STUDENT RECORDS (STUDENT RIGHTS)

- ~~1. Each student has rights to request access to or release of, his or her education records. Such requests must be in writing on forms provided by Nobel University, or by letter addressed to the Registrar. The written request must specify the records desired, or to be released, to whom, and the purpose of the request. Nobel University is obligated to reply to such requests within 45 days from the date the request is received.~~
- ~~2. A student may also request letters pertaining to his or her education record. The cost of producing or reproducing such documents is to be borne by the student. Fees are listed in the Schedule of Fees.~~
- ~~3. A student may request changes in his or her records. If evidence is provided, a change or correction will be made.~~

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

FERPA affords students certain rights with respect to their education records:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access. Students should submit written requests that identify the desired record(s) to the Registrar, Dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official. The university official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the university official to whom the request has been submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.
2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the university to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the university official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the university decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the university will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to consent disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to university officials with legitimate education interests. An university official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position (including law enforcement personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the university has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Directors; or a student assisting an university official or serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee. An university official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill a professional responsibility. Upon request, the university discloses education records without consent to officials of another institution in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.
4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Nobel University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is as follows:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
